KUTUMBA teaching meaning (not a BBT translation): The soul is never born and never dies; unborn, eternal, and everlasting — not destroyed when the body is destroyed.

Adult memory line:

I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa's service.

Misconception to block: All souls are God / we are the Supreme.

Deferral line:

I don't want to guess. I will verify that from Śrīla Prabhupāda's books / our source packet and come back to you.

12–20 — Structured practice (P02)

Run the week's parent mechanic: Identity under success and failure. Keep tone practical, not competitive.

20–30 — Substantial family case (P03)

Walk seven fields: situation · mistaken conclusion · principle · source · compassionate response · practical action · what not to say. Constructed fictional case — not a real family.

30–36 — Household operating application (P04)

Write one operating line the household can actually keep this week.

36–40 — Private next-step saṅkalpa (P05)

Private. Not for ranking. Minimum version counts.

Cycle project: Who Am I, and How Should Our Family Live? This week layer: Connect to BG 2.20 and conclusion: The jīva is eternal, conscious, individual, minute, and related to Kṛṣṇa in service — not God Himself.

Artifact this week

Produce one household artifact piece (drawing, card, schedule strip, gratitude note, or outline) that can be stored for Week 6 presentation.

Contribution rules

- Noncompetitive — no ranking of families.
- Source honesty — cite BG 2.20 URL when claiming doctrine.
- Mercy for missed weeks — incomplete artifacts still welcome.
- No major new doctrine beyond this week's scope.

Week 6 use

Artifacts feed the integration presentation (four families × up to 10 minutes).

Week Home Practice

Week: The Nature of the Soul • Date: 2026-09-26 Primary: BG 2.20 —
<https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/20/>

Memory line

I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa's service.

Ideal version (5–15 minutes)

1. Say the memory line once together.
2. Paraphrase BG 2.20 in one family sentence (KUTUMBA teaching meaning — not a purport dump).
3. Do one gratitude or service act connected to tonight's conclusion.
4. Optional: sketch or tape this week's project artifact layer.

Minimum version (counts)

Memory line + one kind / care / gratitude act. Five minutes counts.

Do not

- Rank families or children.
- Force confession of private struggles.
- Claim science proves doctrine.
- Shame ordinary lawful enjoyment (especially relevant for temporary-world weeks).
- Use fear or death-pressure (especially relevant for human-life weeks).

Privacy

Private saṅkalpas stay private. Do not post completed sheets to public channels.

TEACHER-ONLY

Remove teacher-only pages before distributing participant copies.

Week ID: C1-W3 • Date: 2026-09-26 • Entry: V13-WEEK-START-HERE.md\n\nWeek: The Nature of the Soul
Primary: BG 2.20 — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/20/> Session length: 40 minutes (parallel track ~2:30–3:10) Parents: Remain onsite; reunite at 3:10 Status: Internal founding-cohort teaching material — human/temple review EXTERNAL_OPEN

Objective

Children experience that they are an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa’s service — not God Himself. They take home a “spark serves the sun” cue card and one care-as-service act.

Exact memory phrase

I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa’s service.

Teacher background (2 minutes to review)

- KUTUMBA teaching meaning (adult wording): The soul is never born and never dies; unborn, eternal, and everlasting — not destroyed when the body is destroyed.
- Child-facing paraphrase: You are a tiny bright spark meant to love and serve Kṛṣṇa. Sparks are not the whole sun. We still brush teeth and sleep — caring for the body helps us serve.
- Block misconceptions (child words):
 - “I am God.”
 - “Science proved there is no soul.”
 - “Bodies don’t need care because we are soul.”
- Do not: invent dialogue; use violence in Jaḍa Bharata retelling; shame a child who says “I am God”; claim lab proof of ātman.

Materials

- Yellow “sun” circle and smaller “spark/ray” cutouts (one spark per child)
- Soft house picture or toy house + small figure (resident demo)
- Card stock for spark-service cards
- Crayons; printed line-art if available
- Soft toss object; calm-corner chair

Room setup

Circle; sun poster at center; spark cutouts ready; aisles clear for Spark-and-Serve movement.

Minute-by-minute executable plan

0–5 min — Opening and recall

1. Welcome; feet on floor.
2. Show sun + one spark: “Same light-nature — spark is not the sun.”

3. Echo memory phrase twice (break into beats): I am an eternal soul — / conscious, individual — / meant for Kṛṣṇa's service.
4. Briefly recall W2: body changes; self continues — today we learn what kind of self.

5–13 min — Story script (paraphrase only; ~8 minutes)

Say exactly this spine (do not invent deity dialogue):

Last week we learned: bodies change; the conscious self continues. Today we ask: what kind of self am I? Kṛṣṇa teaches that the soul is never born and never dies. When the body is finished, the soul is not destroyed. The living being is like a ray of the sun — sharing light-nature, but not the whole sun. We are tiny parts meant to serve Kṛṣṇa, not to become the Supreme. Long ago, a wise person named Jaḍa Bharata helped a king see that labels about bodies — strong, weak, important jobs — do not define the soul. We tell that gently, without scary details. If someone says “I am God,” we smile and say: “You are a dear spark meant to serve, not the whole sun.” And we still care for our house — our body — so we can serve with energy.

Story boundaries: BG 2.20 + BG 15.7 fragmental part; Jaḍa Bharata / ŚB 5.10 gentle nonviolent paraphrase only. No invented quotes. No “science proves soul.”

13–16 min — Three wonder questions

1. Is the spark the whole sun? (No)
2. What is the soul meant for? (Kṛṣṇa's service)
3. Name one way to care for the body so we can serve. (sleep / water / brush)

16–24 min — Movement game: Spark and Serve (steps)

1. Children stand in open space holding imaginary sparks (open palms).
2. Teacher calls Spark! — children wiggle fingers (alive, conscious).
3. Teacher calls Not the sun! — point to sun poster; shake head gently; whisper “I serve.”
4. Teacher calls Serve! — take three gentle steps toward a “service mat” (help pile: toy tidy, or kindness mat) and sit.
5. Three rounds. Round three: show cards (A) “I am God” (B) “I am a spark who serves.” Point to B on Serve.
6. End seated; echo memory phrase once.

24–32 min — Craft: Spark-service cue card (steps)

1. Fold card stock; stick or draw a yellow spark on the front.
2. Inside, write: I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa's service. (or short: Dear spark — I serve Kṛṣṇa.)
3. On the back: draw one service act (help set plate, soft voice, tidy toys) AND one body-care act.
4. Practice: touch spark → say “not the sun” → say “I serve.”
5. Take-home placement: near toothbrush or dinner plate.

Full steps also in activities/v13-younger/.

32–35 min — Printable / coloring task

Color line-art if time; else keep spark card.

35–38 min — Behavior redirects and quiet reset

- Feet on floor — “Spark feet on the mat.”
- Kind words — “Serve voice.”
- I am God boast — “Smile — dear spark who serves.”
- Quiet reset — calm corner with sun picture; rejoin on Serve.

38–40 min — Cleanup and parent handoff

Memory: “I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa’s service.” Home cue: once daily — say the phrase and do one care act as service readiness. Labs measure bodies; soul teaching comes from śāstra.

Behavior redirects (quick reference)

Signal	Teacher line	Child action
“I am God”	“Dear spark who serves.”	Repeat gently
Body neglect talk	“Care helps us serve.”	Name one care act
Running	“Spark walk.”	Walk
Shutdown	“Quiet reset okay.”	Calm corner 60 sec

Backup low-prep

Soft toss: catch → say “spark,” “serve,” or “care.” Three phrase echoes. Optional: place spark cutouts on sun, then take one home.

What success looks like

- Child can say spark ≠ sun.
- Child can echo (or finish) memory phrase.
- Child can name one service + one care act.

Boundaries

- Snack/water at 3:30 only; no weekly meal.
- N/A — no empirical claim is needed for this week’s doctrinal conclusion about ātman — do not claim science proves or disproves the soul.
- No ranking; no public shame for “I am God” moments.

Objective

Students observe BG 2.20, map jīva is/is-not (eternal, conscious, individual, minute, related in service — not God Himself), complete a sun-ray diagram, practice a science deferral line, and answer: If I am a soul, how should I live?

Exact memory phrase

I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa's service.

Short echo: Spark who serves — not the sun.

Teacher background

- KUTUMBA teaching meaning: The soul is never born and never dies; unborn, eternal, and everlasting — not destroyed when the body is destroyed. (KUTUMBA teaching meaning — not BBT translation.)
- Supporting frames: BG 15.7 — eternal fragmental parts (qualitative likeness, quantitative difference); BG 2.17 — that which pervades the body is indestructible; ŚB 5.10 Jaḍa Bharata context — bodily labels do not define the soul (gentle paraphrase only).
- Block: “All souls are God / we are the Supreme”; “science disproved the soul”; “body contempt is spiritual.”
- Science stance: N/A — no empirical claim is needed for this week's doctrinal conclusion about ātman. Labs measure bodies/behavior; doctrine rests on śāstra.

Materials

- Printed verse strip: Devanāgarī + IAST + KUTUMBA teaching meaning
- Worksheet copies from activities/v13-older/
- Scenario cards (‘I am God’ boast; anti-science dismissal; hygiene neglect — fictional)
- Is/Is-not + sun-ray diagram sheet
- Pencils; timer; activities/v13-older/ (keys in teacher-only pages) (teacher only)
- Project contribution half-sheets
- T / F cards for Soul Map game

Minute-by-minute plan

0–5 min — Settle and hook

1. Welcome; feet on floor.
2. Hook: “If a child proudly says ‘I am God,’ what gentle correction fits — and what would shame look like?” Collect two answers; hold for verse.

3. Essential question: If I am a soul, how should I live?

5–14 min — Primary text observation (BG 2.20)

1. Display verse; read IAST together once; Devanāgarī slowly or authorized audio.
2. Students underline: never born / never dies / not destroyed when the body is destroyed.

3. Observation prompts (write short answers):

- What continues when the body is destroyed?
- What is not claimed (that jīva = the Supreme)?
- What domain does laboratory science measure?

1. Add bridges:

- BG 15.7 — fragmental part; spark ≠ sun.
- Science deferral line aloud once as a class.

1. Paraphrase only; no invented dialogue; Jaḍa Bharata only if gentle and nonviolent.

14–22 min — Worksheet questions

Students complete Section A:

1. Restate teaching meaning in one sentence.
2. Fill: eternal _____ parts (fragmental).
3. Mark IS / IS NOT for body, Supreme, conscious individual, service.
4. Write a gentle correction for “I am God.”
5. Write science deferral in own words.
6. Name one body-care act as service readiness.

Circulate with answer key for directions, not ranks.

22–28 min — Scenario cards (small groups)

Card A — Child: ‘I am God.’ Mistaken: Soul equals the Supreme. Card B — Adult: ‘Science disproved the soul.’ Mistaken: Empiricism settled ātman. Card C — Family neglects hygiene ‘because we are soul.’ Mistaken: Body contempt is spiritual.

Each group writes mistaken conclusion / principle / compassionate response / better action / what not to say. Share 60 seconds.

28–33 min — Puzzle / game: Soul Map True/False

1. Teacher reads statements (examples below).
2. Teams hold T or F, then one sentence why.
3. Four to five rounds; respectful energy; no mocking.

Sample statements:

- The soul is never born. (T)

33–37 min — Diagram task

Complete is/is-not table and sun ← ray sketch. Circle service relationship. Write short echo inside. Low-risk examples only.

37–40 min — Project contribution + reflection + handoff

1. Project: "Because I am a soul, this week I will live by _____."
2. Reflection: How do BG 2.20 and BG 15.7 together block both nihilism and "I am God"?
3. Cleanup; reunification sheets ready.
4. Parent handoff: daily phrase + one care act as service readiness; keep science deferral ready.

Extension (if group finishes early)

One gentle Jaḍa Bharata status-label point (ŚB 5.10) — nonviolent, no invented dialogue — connecting bodily labels ≠ soul identity.

KUTUMBA • Families Growing in Krishna Consciousness Program Director: Swapnil Patil Status: Internal founding-cohort teaching material — human/temple review EXTERNAL_OPEN Controlling guide: This V13 file is authoritative for Saturday delivery. Core teaching is inlined below.

Two-minute summary

The jīva is eternal, conscious, individual, minute, and related to Kṛṣṇa in service — not God Himself.

Primary: BG 2.20 (<https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/20/>). Essential question: If I am a soul, how should I live?

Essential question

If I am a soul, how should I live?

15-minute night-before prep

1. Open <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/20/> and reread Devanāgarī, IAST, and KUTUMBA teaching meaning below.
2. Rehearse the speaking script section aloud once (aim for clear 10–15 minute delivery with pauses).
3. Pack younger + older + parent printables from activities/v13-*.
4. Review misconception to block: All souls are God / we are the Supreme.
5. Confirm snack/water only (no weekly meal); parents onsite; privacy reminder card visible.
6. For C1-W4: verify Mṛgārī source cards say CC Madhya 24.229–282 (not SB 6.x / SB 4.8).

60-minute deep prep

1. Read the inlined analogies, examples, and three cases in this guide until you can teach them without notes.
2. Mark which discovery / understanding / application questions you will actually ask.
3. Choose one analogy and one case as your "must teach" pair; keep the others ready for Q&A.
4. Walk the room: parent circle, younger zone, older zone, reunification seats.
5. Pre-write the home-practice minimum version on a card (5 minutes counts).
6. Review deferral line: laboratory methods measure bodies/behavior; ātman/bhakti claims rest on śāstra — no false science proof.
7. Skim project/V13-MODULE-PROJECT-BRIEF.md for this week's artifact layer.
8. Optional enrichment only (not a substitute for this guide): research/V13-* files.

Tonight we go one step deeper than last week. Week 2 said the body changes and the self continues. Week 3 asks what kind of self that is.

Essential question: If I am a soul, how should I live?

Primary: BG 2.20 — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/20/>

Teaching meaning: "The soul is never born and never dies; unborn, eternal, and everlasting — not destroyed when the body is destroyed."

Conclusion: The jīva is eternal, conscious, individual, minute, and related to Kṛṣṇa in service — not God Himself.

Please hear the is/is-not map clearly. The jīva is eternal, conscious, and individual. The jīva is a minute fragmental part related to Kṛṣṇa in service (BG 15.7). The jīva is not the temporary body. The jīva is not the Supreme Personality of Godhead.

If a child says "I am God," we smile and correct: "You are a dear spark meant to serve, not the whole sun."

Sun-and-ray, spark-from-fire, house-and-resident — all are pedagogy with limits. Rays are not the sun. Residents still care for the house.

Narrative support: Jaḍa Bharata's teaching context in ŚB 5.10 reminds us bodily status labels do not define the soul (<https://vedabase.io/en/library/sb/5/10/>). Keep retellings gentle and nonviolent.

Science boundary for this week is explicit: N/A — no empirical claim is used to prove or disprove ātman. Laboratory methods measure bodies and behavior. If asked for science proof of the soul, say so out loud and defer doctrine to śāstra.

Case: neglecting hygiene "because we are soul." That is body contempt, not spirituality. Restore care as service readiness.

Supporting readings:

- BG 15.7 — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/15/7/> — Living entities are eternal fragmental parts of Kṛṣṇa — qualitative likeness, quantitative difference.
- BG 2.17 — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/17/> — That which pervades the body is indestructible.
- ŚB 5.10 (Jaḍa Bharata context) — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/sb/5/10/> — Narrative support: soul beyond bodily status labels — gentle paraphrase only.

Memory: I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa's service.

I am going to teach the analogies slowly, with limits in the same breath, because an analogy without a limit becomes a new false doctrine.

First: Sun and sunray. Ray shares light-nature with the sun but is not the sun. Limit: Ray is not the sun — blocks 'I am God.'

Second: Spark from fire. Same nature, dependent existence. Limit: Not independent Godhood; dependence remains.

Third: House and resident. Resident is not the house; still cares for the house. Limit: Can feel impersonal if overused — keep personhood of the jīva clear.

Hold those as teaching tools, not as replacements for BG 2.20.

Now two sourced examples, paraphrased only.

Example A — Jaḍa Bharata and King Rahūgaṇa (ŚB 5.9–5.10). Bodily labels (carrier, king, appearance) do not define the soul. Classroom retelling must be nonviolent and symbolic; no invented dialogue. Link: <https://vedabase.io/en/library/sb/5/10/>

Example B — Fragmental part teaching (BG 15.7). Supports individuality + relationship to Kṛṣṇa without claiming Supreme identity. Link: <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/15/7/>

Next I will walk all three household cases out loud so you can copy the pattern at home. Please listen for seven fields every time: situation, mistaken conclusion, principle, source, compassionate response, action, and what not to say.

Case 1. Situation: A child proudly says, 'I am God.' Mistaken conclusion: Soul equals the Supreme. Principle and source: BG 15.7 — eternal fragmental part; BG 2.20 — eternal individual self. (<https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/15/7/>) Compassionate response: Smile; correct gently: we are tiny parts meant to serve, not the whole. Family action: Practice the sentence: 'I am a soul who serves Kṛṣṇa.' What not to say: You're blasphemous. Shame the child publicly.

Case 2. Situation: An adult dismisses soul talk as anti-science. Mistaken conclusion: Science has disproved the soul. Principle and source: Different domains: empiricism measures bodies/behavior; śāstra teaches ātman. (Program science boundary + BG 2.20) Compassionate response: Agree that labs measure physical processes. Clarify we are not claiming a lab proof of ātman tonight. Family action: Offer the deferral line; invite reading the verse URL later. What not to say: Scientists are demons. Faith means never asking questions.

Case 3. Situation: A family neglects sleep and hygiene 'because we are soul.' Mistaken conclusion: Body contempt is spiritual. Principle and source: Care without identity confusion — resident cares for house. (Pedagogy limit of house analogy + prior W2 care theme) Compassionate response: Restore basic care as service readiness, not as identity. Family action: Pick one body-care act (sleep time / water / bathing) as service this week. What not to say: The body is illusion so ignore doctors. Only weak people rest.

I will now ask the room three discovery questions. You may answer in a whisper to a partner:

- What does 'eternal' mean in kid words?
- Where do people confuse 'soul' with 'I am God'?
- What is one way a soul shows service at home?

Understanding check — please be ready to say in one sentence: The jīva is eternal, conscious, individual, minute, and related to Kṛṣṇa in service — not God Himself.. Name the primary: BG 2.20. Name what we are not teaching tonight: ranking, speculation, and the misconception “All souls are God / we are the Supreme.”.

Application — before you leave the shared opening, decide silently: time + place for home practice; who starts if others are tired; and the minimum version if the week is hard. Five minutes counts. Memory line plus one kind action counts.

Let me demonstrate a minimum home practice out loud so nobody leaves confused. Tonight after dinner, or at the same chair each evening, someone says the memory line once: “I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa's service..” Then one family member paraphrases BG 2.20 in a single sentence. Then one gratitude or service act — thanking someone, offering water, putting shoes away as kindness, or a short prayer. If the house is chaotic, keep only the memory line and one kind action. That still honors tonight's conclusion: The jīva is eternal, conscious, individual, minute, and related to Kṛṣṇa in service — not God Himself.

When we reunite at 3:10, I will not score families. I will ask for one sentence: “This week we will...” Drawings count. Whispered parent sentences count. Loud brilliance is not holier than quiet sincerity.

Likely questions you may hear from adults — rehearse these answers with me:

If someone asks, “Are we God?” — answer: No. We are eternal fragmental parts meant for service (BG 15.7).

If someone asks, “Can science prove the soul?” — answer: N/A as proof. Empiricism does not establish ātman; we teach from śāstra.

If someone asks, “Is the soul created at birth?” — answer: BG 2.20 teaches the soul is never born and never dies — paraphrase carefully; avoid speculative cosmology debates.

If someone asks, “Do animals have souls?” — answer: Gauḍīya teaching affirms life in many forms; keep class focused on human family practice tonight without species contempt.

If someone asks, “What should I do if I am a soul?” — answer: Live as a servant of Kṛṣṇa: hear, remember, serve, speak respectfully — start with this week's home cue.

A short word on boundaries. We do not invent quotations. We do not dump full purports into Git or into the room. We do not diagnose families medically or spiritually in public. We do not guarantee initiation, advancement, or certification. We do not claim human, temple, CPO, or publication approval. Science may help habits; it does not prove ātman or replace śāstra.

Operational covenant aloud: Saturday 1:50–4:00 (teaching window 2:00–4:00); snack and water only; parents onsite; private struggles stay private; no false approval labels.

Recite with me before tracks:

- Essential question: If I am a soul, how should I live?
- Conclusion: The jīva is eternal, conscious, individual, minute, and related to Kṛṣṇa in service — not God Himself.
- Memory line: I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa's service.
- Misconception to block: All souls are God / we are the Supreme.
- Primary: BG 2.20 — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/20/>

Parents: your job in the parent circle is not to perform brilliance. It is to leave with a cue, a minimum version, and a kinder sentence than the one you might have used last week. Younger and older teachers will deepen practice in age bands. We reunite at 3:10 for one family sentence: “This week we will...”

That is the heart of tonight's teaching. Let us practice it, not merely admire it.

Discovery questions

1. What does 'eternal' mean in kid words?
2. Where do people confuse 'soul' with 'I am God'?
3. What is one way a soul shows service at home?

Understanding questions

1. List three truths about the jīva from today's teaching.
2. Name what the jīva is not.
3. Cite BG 2.20's teaching meaning in your own words.

Application questions

1. What offering or service act will we do this week?
2. How will we correct 'I am God' language at home?
3. What body-care act will we keep as service?

Five likely Q&A

Question	Source-based direction
Are we God?	No. We are eternal fragmental parts meant for service (BG 15.7).
Can science prove the soul?	N/A as proof. Empiricism does not establish ātman; we teach from śāstra.

Question	Source-based direction
Is the soul created at birth?	BG 2.20 teaches the soul is never born and never dies — paraphrase carefully; avoid speculative cosmology debates.
Do animals have souls?	Gauḍīya teaching affirms life in many forms; keep class focused on human family practice tonight without species contempt.
What should I do if I am a soul?	Live as a servant of Kṛṣṇa: hear, remember, serve, speak respectfully — start with this week's home cue.

Misconceptions to block

- All souls are God / we are the Supreme.
- Confusing analogy with scripture quotation
- Importing next week's full ontology early
- Ranking families or children
- Claiming science proves or disproves ātman / bhakti metaphysics
- False human, temple, CPO, or publication approval labels

What not to speculate about

- Invented quotations, purport dumps, or unverified lecture lines
- Private medical or spiritual diagnoses of families
- Guarantees of advancement, initiation, or certification
- Graphic retellings (especially Mṛgāri) or fear-based death pressure on children
- For W4: any claim that Mṛgāri is located in SB 6.x or SB 4.8

Track transition (say at ~2:28)

Parents remain in the parent circle. Younger friends go with [younger teacher]. Older students go with [older teacher]. We reunite at 3:10. We do not rank groups.

Family reunification synthesis (3:10–3:30)

Invite one sentence per family tied to the essential question:

"This week we will..."

Accept drawings or whispered parent sentences for shy children. No scoreboard.

Project contribution

Advance the cumulative project Who Am I, and How Should Our Family Live? using `project/V13-MODULE-PROJECT-BRIEF.md`. This week layer must connect to BG 2.20 and tonight's conclusion. Store artifacts for Week 6. Non-competitive.

Home practice (5–15 minutes)

1. Say the memory line once: I am an eternal soul — conscious, individual, and meant for Kṛṣṇa's service.
2. Paraphrase BG 2.20 in one family sentence.
3. Do one gratitude or service act.
4. Minimum version if exhausted: memory line + one kind action only.

Next-week preview

Name only: C1-W4 — Why Human Life Is Rare and Valuable. Do not teach next week's ontology in depth tonight.

Do not claim

Human/temple/CPO approval; publication readiness; BBT ownership of KUTUMBA teaching meanings; science proving ātman; ranking results; guaranteed spiritual outcomes.

Misconceptions and no-speculation boundaries

- Do not invent dialogue for scriptural persons.
- Do not diagnose private karma or modes as insults in the room.
- Do not claim temple/BBT/human approval that has not been given.
- Defer off-scope questions with the standard deferral line.
