ESSENTIAL FOCUS

| Field              | Content                                                                                                  |
|--------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Essential question | What deserves protected family time?                                                                     |
| Conclusion         | Human life gives a rare opportunity for deliberate self-realization — protect inquiry and practice time. |
| Memory line        | Human life is a rare chance to ask who I am and serve Kṛṣṇa.                                             |

| Field                  | Content                                                                                                                 |

| Misconception to block | Use fear or death-pressure to motivate children.                                                                        |
| Primary mechanic       | Time-budget challenge (jar / priority / schedule audit)                                                                 |
| Special safeguard      | If Mṛgāri is used: CC Madhya 24.229–282 — NOT ŚB.                                                                       |
