C2-W3: Birth, Death and Reincarnation

Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self.

KUTUMBA original - Program Director: Swapnil Patil - human review required

Family handout / home practice

Primary cue this week: one-minute bedtime remembrance on three nights.

Full version (5–15 minutes when energy allows)

1. Say the memory line once: Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self.
2. Paraphrase BG 2.22 in one calm family sentence (<https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/22/>).
3. Do the Bedtime Remembrance Routine:
 - Cue (teeth brushing / device charging / entering bedroom)
 - One slow mahā-mantra or short approved hearing
 - One gratitude + one request for remembrance
4. End without lecture or fear talk.

Minimum version (hard nights / grief)

One mahā-mantra + one gratitude. Still counts toward the three nights.

Boundaries

- No scare stories before sleep.
- No diagnosing deceased destinations.
- No ghost entertainment.
- Saturday 2:00–4:00 remains the protected gathering; home practice is the daily/weekly cue.

Younger printable(s)

Objective

Show and say: Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self — calmly, without fear.

1. Core circle activity — Doll clothes change (5–8 min)

5. Teacher demonstrates once with the week object: doll (or paper doll) + two outfits/paper shirts.
6. Say: “Clothes change. Friend stays.” Children echo.
7. Every child gets one turn to help hold a shirt or say the echo — or partner turn if the group is large.
8. End with memory phrase echo (two rounds max).
9. Hard stop: no “dying,” no funerals, no animal-body guessing games.

2. Story boundary

Use the story in teacher/YOUNGER-TEACHER-GUIDE.md. Paraphrase only. No invented deity dialogue. No graphic violence. No scare tactics. No ghost stories.

3. Movement — Soft Clothes Walk — C2-W3

Walk gently with a soft scarf → pause on “Change!” → fold scarf to heart → finish memory phrase → sit.

4. Craft / object (actual)

Clothes-card:

10. Fold card stock in half.
11. Outside: draw a simple shirt or glue a tiny fabric scrap.
12. Inside: write or sticker — Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self.
13. Optional: draw a small moon for “bedtime remembrance.”

Take-home: use the card before the one-minute bedtime practice.

5. Memory card

- Front: simple shirt icon for C2-W3
- Back: Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self.

6. Printable coloring

Color ../visuals/V12/line-art-younger.svg (US Letter). Prompt: color a calm scene that shows clothes changing and a peaceful heart — no graves, no ghosts.

7. Take-home family cue

Ask at home: How do we speak calmly about birth and death? (one soft sentence each) Plus: one-minute bedtime remembrance on three nights.

Backup low-prep

Pass soft scarf; each child says one kind word; echo memory phrase.

Materials

Printed line art, crayons, card stock, soft scarf, doll or paper doll, two outfits/paper shirts, tape, optional fabric scrap.

Older printable(s)

A. Concept worksheet (write answers)

14. State this week's conclusion in one sentence.
15. Write the primary scripture reference: _____
16. Paraphrase BG 2.22 in your words (no copying long text).
17. Name one misconception to avoid (scare / destinations / ghosts / closet-shopping / fatalism).
18. Write one family action for the next 7 days (include bedtime remembrance).
19. Essential question: How do we speak calmly about birth and death? — answer in 2–3 sentences.

B. Matching puzzle

Match term → meaning:

Term	Meaning
dehī	Embodied self who continues
Garment analogy	Bodies change like clothes
Remembrance	Calm practice of recalling the Lord
Analogy limit	Not choosing a body from a closet

Print as two cut columns and match, or write letters A–D.

C. Scramble (optional)

20. Embodied self who continues → _____
21. Bodies change like clothes → _____
22. Calm practice of recalling the Lord → _____
23. Not choosing a body from a closet → _____

D. Scenario response card

Pick Constructed case 3 from the facilitator guide (teen fatalism), or Case 1 if preferred. Write: mistaken conclusion / better response / one calm sentence you would say at home.

E. Diagram task

On the week diagram, label garment / body / continuing self / limit box. Draw one arrow that shows this week's primary conclusion: Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self — teach without fear.

F. Source observation

Open <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/22/>. Write a faithful paraphrase of BG 2.22 (not a long dump). Optional support skim: <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/13/> and <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/8/6/>.

G. Project / poster component

Produce one artifact for `project/CYCLE-CONTRIBUTION.md` (C2-W3 layer): e.g., a “calm speech card” or bedtime-cue poster.

H. Optional reflection

Circle one: I confused analogy with scripture / I stayed calm (no scare talk) / I need review.

Low-prep backup

Pair-share essential question for 3 minutes; each writes one reunification sentence about calm speech or remembrance.

Project contribution

Cumulative project

Cycle project for this band — week layer for C2-W3.

Essential question

How do we speak calmly about birth and death?

Artifact

One family artifact answering the question; ≤20 minutes optional burden.

Primary

BG 2.22 — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/22/>

Boundaries

No ranking; no forced disclosure; distinguish paraphrase from analogy.

TEACHER-ONLY: Answer key

Worksheet — secure answers

24. Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self — teach without fear. (or close equivalent)
25. BG 2.22
26. Accept any faithful paraphrase of: As a person puts on new garments, giving up old ones, the embodied self similarly accepts new bodies, giving up old ones — taught calmly, without fear tactics for children.

Scenario grading

Secure = names mistaken conclusion + compassionate action + no shame language + no scare tactics + no destination diagnosis + rejects fatalism if Case 3.

Do not accept

- Invented verse numbers
- “Science proves reincarnation”
- Graphic death content or ghost entertainment framed as doctrine

- Importing full C2-W4 modes ontology as if it were tonight’s only point
- Ranking language about grief or “advancement”

TEACHER NOTE

Teacher-only section — do not distribute to families.

TEACHER-ONLY: Younger run sheet

Track window: approx. 2:30–3:10 (40 minutes). Parents onsite elsewhere; reunite at 3:10.

Objective

Children can say and show: Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self — gently, without fear.

Exact memory phrase

Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self.

Teacher background (2 minutes, before children arrive)

- Primary: BG 2.22 — As a person puts on new garments, giving up old ones, the embodied self similarly accepts new bodies, giving up old ones — taught calmly, without fear tactics for children.
(<https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/22/>)
- Block: scare pedagogy; ghost talk; funeral role-play; scary pictures; “choosing bodies from a closet.”
- Do not teach adult debates, destinations of deceased relatives, or graphic death.
- If a child mentions a recent death, acknowledge kindly (“That is sad. We can remember them with love.”) and return to the gentle lesson. Do not diagnose.
- Snack later with whole group only; water okay if needed.

Minute-by-minute lesson

Minutes	Block	What you do
0–3	Welcome + seated circle	Soft voice; “kind words only”; show calm clothes/doll visual — no scary images
3–8	Memory phrase echo	You say half; they finish; two joyful rounds max
8–16	Story script	Read/tell the gentle story below; ask one wonder question
16–23	Movement game	Soft Clothes Walk (rules below)
23–33	Hands-on + craft	Doll/clothes object lesson + take-home card
33–37	Coloring	`visuals/V12/line-art-younger.svg` (calm scene only)
37–40	Cleanup + door handoff	Tell parent the memory phrase + three-night bedtime cue

Age-appropriate story script (5–8 min) — gentle; no gore

Once there was a soft doll who wore a yellow shirt. The doll was still the same doll when the yellow shirt was folded away and a blue shirt was put on. The doll did not disappear. The clothes changed.

Kṛṣṇa teaches something kind: we are not only our clothes-of-the-body. When a body grows from little to bigger — like baby clothes to bigger clothes — we are still us. Someday bodies finish their work, the way worn clothes are set aside. The person Kṛṣṇa knows continues. We do not need to be afraid in this room. Tonight we practice kind words and remembering Kṛṣṇa with a calm heart.

Rules: no invented deity dialogue; no frightening detail; no funerals, hospitals, blood, ghosts, or “dying games.” Stop at the moral: bodies change like clothes; we speak calmly; we remember Kṛṣṇa gently.

Three wonder questions

34. What stayed the same when the doll’s clothes changed?
35. Whom can we remember with kindness this week?
36. When could our family remember Kṛṣṇa for one minute before sleep?

Movement game (5–7 min) — Soft Clothes Walk — C2-W3

37. Children walk gently in a circle holding (or pretending to hold) a soft scarf “shirt.”
38. When you say “Change!”, they pause and fold the scarf to their heart (no throwing).
39. You say the first half of the memory phrase; they finish it.
40. Two rounds only; then sit. Redirect: “Feet on the floor. Kind words only. Soft bodies.”

Hands-on object lesson (8–10 min) — Doll / clothes

Object: One classroom doll (or paper doll) + two simple outfits or colored paper shirts. Steps:

41. Teacher shows doll in outfit A: “This is the same friend.”
42. Change to outfit B slowly: “Clothes changed. Friend is still here.”
43. Children say: “The doll stays. The clothes change.”
44. Secure ending: “Our bodies change too. We speak kindly. We remember Kṛṣṇa.”

Never: “Now the doll dies.” Never closet-shopping for “next life animals.”

Craft (8–10 min)

Clothes-card: Fold a card. Outside: draw a simple shirt. Inside: write or sticker the memory phrase. Optional: glue a tiny fabric scrap. Children take it home to look at before bedtime remembrance.

Coloring / line-art

Color ../visuals/V12/line-art-younger.svg. Title the page with C2-W3. If the art is unclear, children draw a calm shirt and a smiling child praying — no graves, no ghosts.

Sanskrit exposure (optional, 1 min)

Softly invite hearing one word from the verse: dehī (the embodied self) — or simply Kṛṣṇa / Hare. Never forced volume.

Behavior redirects

- “Feet on the floor.”
- “Kind words only.”
- “That toy rests for now.”
- “We use soft voices about bodies.”
- Quiet reset in visible space if needed (parents onsite).

Backup low-prep (if craft or doll fails)

Sit in a circle; pass a soft scarf; each child says one kind word; end with memory phrase echo twice.

Extension

Helper role: hand out crayons / collect papers / hold the “calm scarf.”

Materials

Printed line art; crayons; memory cards; soft scarf; doll or paper doll + two outfits/paper shirts; card stock; tape; fabric scrap optional.

Cleanup / handoff

3 minutes cleanup. At door: tell parent the memory phrase and: “Please try one-minute bedtime remembrance on three nights.”

Home-practice explanation to parents

“Please say the memory phrase once and do one calm minute of remembrance before bed on three nights. Soft language only — no scare stories.”

TEACHER-ONLY: Older run sheet

Track window: approx. 2:30–3:10 (40 minutes).

Objective

Students explain Birth and death are changes of dress for the eternal self — teach without fear using BG 2.22, and reject fatalism that “nothing matters if we reincarnate.”

Essential question

How do we speak calmly about birth and death?

Minute-by-minute

Minutes	Block	What you do
0–5	Hook	Read essential question; students write a one-line first answer

Minutes	Block	What you do
5–15	Text observation	Open https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/22/ ; complete observation task below
15–22	Diagram	Label garment → body continuity map; mark the “limit” box (not a closet)
22–30	Scenario cards	Pairs work Cases 1–3 (bedtime / funeral / fatalism)
30–36	Worksheet / matching	`activities/OLDER-ACTIVITY-PACK.md`
36–40	Reflection + reunification sentence	Prepare one calm sentence for 3:10 share

Text-observation task (10 min)

Open <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/2/22/>. Students write:

45. Who is speaking / what is the teaching setting (Kṛṣṇa to Arjuna in BG Chapter 2 — keep non-graphic)?
46. One phrase that signals continuity of the self through changing bodies.
47. One sentence paraphrase in their own words (not a long dump).
48. One thing this verse does not say (e.g., does not say we shop for bodies; does not say scare children).

Target paraphrase: As a person puts on new garments, giving up old ones, the embodied self similarly accepts new bodies, giving up old ones — taught calmly, without fear tactics for children.

Diagram task

On board or visuals/V12/ materials, label:

- Worn garment → set aside
- New garment → accepted
- Embodied self (dehī) → continues
- Limit box: “Not choosing from a closet / not ghost speculation / not destination diagnosis”

Draw one arrow showing this week’s conclusion: the self continues; teach calmly.

Scenario cards

Use the three constructed cases inline in teacher/MAIN-FACILITATOR-GUIDE-V12.md:

49. Child bedtime question
50. Relative funeral language
51. Teen fatalism (“nothing matters if we reincarnate”)

In pairs: name the mistaken conclusion + compassionate response + better family action. Prefer Case 3 if time is short — it matches this age band’s common doubt.

Worksheet + puzzle

See activities/OLDER-ACTIVITY-PACK.md; grade with activities/OLDER-ANSWER-KEY.md.

Project contribution

Advance project/CYCLE-CONTRIBUTION.md layer for C2-W3 (calm speech / remembrance artifact).

Reflection prompt

“Where might someone confuse the clothes analogy with ‘picking a next body’ — and how do we correct that kindly?”

Extension

Prepare reunification share sentence answering: How do we speak calmly about birth and death?

Boundaries

- Misconceptions to block: scare pedagogy; diagnosing destinations; ghost speculation; closet-shopping analogy abuse; reincarnation-as-fatalism.
- BG 14.14–14.15: recognition only — full modes next week (C2-W4).
- Science may inform calm speech pedagogy only — never prove transmigration.
- No ranking; no forced disclosure of private grief.
