Cycle 2 — Karma, Rebirth and Material Nature

Field	Detail
Week code	C2-W4
Cycle function	Parent and child formation
Purpose	Introduce goodness, passion and ignorance as changing influences that condition perception and behavior, while preventing fixed labels and directing families toward habits favorable for bhakti.
Key verse	Bhagavad-gītā 14.5 — sattvaṁ rajas tama iti guṇāḥ prakṛti-sambhavāḥ
Memory line	Material nature has three modes—goodness, passion and ignorance—that condition the eternal living being.
Bhakti laboratory	Clarity Before Chanting
Minimum home practice	Complete one five-minute environment reset before family chanting or reading.

C2-W4: The Three Modes of Material Nature

Recognize the three modes shaping mood, speech, and choices.

KUTUMBA original - Program Director: Swapnil Patil - human review required

Family handout / home practice

5–15 minutes

1. Say the memory/teaching line once.
2. Read the KUTUMBA teaching meaning for the primary verse (not a long purport).
3. One gratitude or service act.
4. Minimum version if tired: one sentence of thanks.

Saturday 2:00–4:00 remains the protected gathering; home practice is the daily/weekly cue.

Younger printable(s)

Print / prep before Saturday. Objective: Show and say — Calm helps me hear Kṛṣṇa. Block: Do not call children mode names.

Core activity — Weather Faces + Room-Reset Relay

Time: 5–8 minutes movement + brief recall.

Setup

5. Print or draw three weather-face cards: clear sun, windy cloud, fog.
6. Place three soft “mess” items on a rug and an empty basket.
7. Clear running space; teacher keeps the demo calm.

Steps

8. Teacher holds each face and says: clear = easier listening; windy = rushed/noisy; foggy = sleepy-confused start.
9. Children echo the three names.
10. Call “Clear sky!” — children freeze in calm sit.
11. Call “Windy!” — ten quiet tip-toe steps in place.
12. Call “Foggy!” — slowly place one item in the basket.
13. Repeat; end seated. Whole group says memory phrase twice.

14. Teacher closes: “We fixed the room. We did not name a friend as weather.”

Story boundary

Paraphrase only the “Three Weather Days in One House” script in teacher/YOUNGER-TEACHER-GUIDE.md (sourced pedagogy; no invented deity dialogue; no graphic fear content).

Wonder questions (print for teacher clipboard)

15. What was new about clear, windy, and foggy days?
16. Whom can we serve when the room feels busy or messy?
17. When can we practice five quiet minutes before chanting?

Craft / object — Calm Card

Steps:

18. Color ../visuals/V12/line-art-younger.svg on US Letter paper.
19. Fold card stock in half.
20. Inside, write or glue: Calm helps me hear Kṛṣṇa.
21. On the back, draw a tidy basket or a quiet device.
22. Take home for the family five-minute reset cue.

Printable checklist

- [] Weather-face cards (1 set per table)
- [] Line-art page per child
- [] Card stock per child
- [] Crayons / pencils
- [] Soft toss object for backup circle
- [] Basket + three soft tidy items

Backup circle (if craft runs long)

Pass soft object. Each child: one kind word + memory phrase. Teacher leads three-item tidy of the rug.

Materials summary

Printed line art, crayons, card stock, soft toss object, weather cards, basket, three soft items, timer.

Essential question: Which mode is shaping this moment? Primary URL: <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/14/5/>

Student worksheet — Mode Journal Grid

Complete in class:

Mode (Sanskrit / English)	One tendency (own words)	One household condition example (not a person label)
Sattva / goodness
Rajas / passion
Tamas / ignorance

Short answers:

23. KUTUMBA teaching meaning of BG 14.5 (paraphrase, not a long dump):

24. Why can goodness still bind? (BG 14.6 sense)

25. How does BG 14.26 redirect pride about a clean evening?

26. Remove _____ / Add _____ / Move earlier _____ / Simplify _____ for one Clarity Before Chanting reset.

27. Reunification sentence:

Core puzzle — mode_sort_cards

Print and cut (situation cards — sort into Clarifying / Restless-craving / Dull-covering):

28. Devices silenced; seats set; short chant begins on time.

29. Two videos + work chat during homework; voices rise over “five more minutes.”

30. Dishes from yesterday; curtains closed; “too tired” while scrolling continues.

31. Family feels peaceful after chanting, then mocks another family’s messy entryway.

32. Fresh water, washed hands, one clear table before reading.

33. Everyone overslept feelings; no start time; lights stay dim by default.

Rules card (print large): Sort the situation. Do not write a classmate’s name in a mode column. Card 4 is a trap: calm can host pride—place under goodness-trap discussion, not under “winning.”

Executable steps:

34. Read essential question aloud.

35. Complete Mode Journal Grid using week terms.

36. In pairs, sort the six cards; justify with tendencies from BG 14.6–9 / 14.17 sense.

37. Label the concept diagram (three modes → bind embodied self → bhakti transcends; X on labeling people).

38. Respond to one constructed case in two sentences (condition + next action).

39. Write reunification sentence.

Extension

If food talk appears, write one sentence using BG 17.8–10 tendency language that still protects allergies, medical diets, and budgets.

Project contribution

Cumulative project

Cycle project for this band — week layer for C2-W4.

Essential question

Which mode is shaping this moment?

Artifact

One family artifact answering the question; ≤20 minutes optional burden.

Primary

BG 14.5 — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/14/5/>

Boundaries

No ranking; no forced disclosure; distinguish paraphrase from analogy.

TEACHER-ONLY: Answer key

Teacher only — do not distribute.

Primary

- Reference: BG 14.5
- URL: <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/14/5/>
- Secure paraphrase target (KUTUMBA teaching meaning): Goodness, passion, and ignorance — born of material nature — bind the eternal embodied self within the body.

Conclusion students should reach

Recognize the three modes as changing influences that shape mood, speech, and choices; describe conditions, not people; use clarity to support hearing; refuse pride and food policing.

Mode Journal Grid — acceptable tendency samples

Mode	Acceptable tendency samples	Reject
Sattva	clarity, illumination, calm knowledge-leaning, ordered attention	“good people,” “advanced families”
Rajas	restlessness, craving, attachment to results, multi-task agitation	“bad energetic kids,” phone-owners as a class
Tamas	covering, dullness, neglect, unclear starts, inertia	medical diagnoses; “lazy [name]”

Short-answer targets

40. Teaching meaning: Must match the secure paraphrase above (minor wording OK).
41. Goodness binds: Attachment to happiness/knowledge; pride possible (BG 14.6 sense).
42. BG 14.26: Unfailing devotion transcends modes—redirect from superiority to bhakti.
43. Reset: Any concrete remove/add/move earlier/simplify that serves chanting/reading.
44. Reunification: Mentions changing influences + no person-labeling + hearing/practice.

mode_sort_cards — key

Card	Column
1 Devices silenced; seats set; chant begins	Clarifying
2 Two videos + work chat; voices rise	Restless-craving

Card	Column
3 Dishes/curtains/“too tired” while scrolling	Dull-covering
4 Peace then mocks another family’s mess	Goodness trap / pride (discuss with BG 14.6 + 14.26)—not a “win”
5 Water, washed hands, clear table	Clarifying
6 Overslept feelings; no start time; dim default	Dull-covering

Reject list

- Invented verse numbers
- “Science proves the modes / soul”
- Person-as-mode labels
- Allergy/budget food policing framed as devotion
- Scare use of BG 14.18 destiny language with peers

TEACHER NOTE

Teacher-only section — do not distribute to families.

TEACHER-ONLY: Younger run sheet

Track length: ~40 minutes (within Saturday 2:35–3:10 window) Theme: Modes are like weather in a room—changing influences that help or hinder hearing. Primary: BG 14.5 — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/14/5/> Hard block: Never call a child “sattva / rajas / tamas.” Describe the room or the choice.

Objective

By the end of the track, each child can (1) name three simple “weather” feelings—clear, windy, foggy—as room helpers/hinderers, (2) join a five-step room-reset game, and (3) say the memory phrase without labeling friends.

Exact memory phrase

Calm helps me hear Kṛṣṇa.

(Adult memory line differs; children use this actionable phrase.)

Teacher background (2 minutes private prep)

- BG 14.5 teaches that goodness, passion, and ignorance—born of material nature—bind the eternal embodied self in the body.
- For K–2, translate to: rooms and habits can feel clear, rushed, or sleepy-confused; we practice habits that help us hear the holy name.
- Block: mode-shaming, food policing, and comparing families.
- Story must paraphrase only; no invented Kṛṣṇa–child dialogue; no scary destiny talk from BG 14.18.

Materials

- Three weather-face cards (clear sun, windy cloud, fog)
- Soft toss object (beanbag)
- Basket for “tidy three”
- Printed visuals/V12/line-art-younger.svg (US Letter) + crayons
- Take-home card stock (memory phrase inside)
- Optional: teacher-held colored cellophane scrap (no small choking pieces unsupervised)
- Timer; tissues; water

Minute-by-minute run of show

0–5 — Opening / recall

45. Circle sit; feet on floor.
46. Ask: “Who remembers last week’s kind habit?” (one or two shares).
47. Show three weather faces. Children echo: clear / windy / foggy.
48. Say: “Today we learn that rooms can feel different—and we can help our room get ready to hear Kṛṣṇa.”

5–13 — Story script (paraphrase; ~5–8 minutes spoken)

Title: Three Weather Days in One House

Teacher narrates (no invented deity dialogue):

In one house lived a family who loved to chant Kṛṣṇa's names. On a clear day, toys found their basket, voices were soft, and sitting for a short chant felt easy. On a windy day, screens talked loudly, everyone hurried, and ears felt too busy to listen. On a foggy day, the floor stayed messy, bodies felt heavy, and starting anything seemed hard. The same children lived in that house on all three days. The weather of the room changed. A helper adult said: "We don't call people weather words. We change three things, wash hands, and try a short chant." They put three toys away, lowered the noise, sat, and softly answered the holy name. Hearing felt clearer. Remember: calm helps us hear Kṛṣṇa—and we speak kindly about others.

Pause once mid-story for children to hold up which weather face they hear.

13–16 — Three wonder questions

49. What was new in the story about clear, windy, and foggy days?
50. Whom can we serve when the room feels windy or foggy?
51. When can our family practice five quiet minutes before chanting?

Accept short answers; redirect labels ("My brother is fog") to "The room feels foggy—what can we tidy?"

16–24 — Movement game: Room-Reset Relay (steps)

52. Place three soft "mess" items in the center.
53. On "Clear sky," children freeze in a calm seated pose.
54. On "Windy," children do ten quiet tip-toe steps in place (no crashing).
55. On "Foggy," children move slowly to pick one item into the basket (teacher models gentle pace).
56. Repeat two rounds; end with whole group seated, hands washed or wiped, soft echo of memory phrase.
57. Teacher states: "We changed the room. We did not call anyone a weather name."

24–32 — Craft / printable task (steps)

58. Give each child the younger line-art page.
59. Children color three zones lightly: sunny edge, wind lines, soft fog dots—or simply color the calm listening scene if the SVG is a single scene.
60. Fold card stock; child (or teacher scribe) writes/copies: Calm helps me hear Kṛṣṇa.
61. On the back, draw one tidy basket or one quiet device.
62. If time: pass soft object; each child says one kind word, then the memory phrase.

32–35 — Verse / recall

- Teacher holds verse card and says slowly: "Śāstra teaches there are three modes—like helpers and hinderers in nature. We practice calm so we can hear."
- Children repeat memory phrase twice.
- Optional echo of shortened adult idea: "Modes change. We can choose helpful habits."

35–40 — Cleanup and parent handoff

63. Crayons away; papers named; floor check.
64. Behavior redirects if needed: feet on floor · kind words · toy rests · quiet reset corner (30 seconds), then rejoin.
65. Parent handoff script:

Today's phrase: "Calm helps me hear Kṛṣṇa." Home cue: before chanting, tidy three things and silence devices for five minutes. Please don't call children mode names.

Behavior redirects

Signal	Redirect
--------	----------

Signal	Redirect
Rough bodies	“Feet on floor; hands soft.”
Name-calling with weather/mode words	“We name the room, not the friend.”
Food shaming at snack talk	“We don’t police food here.”
Overwhelm	Quiet reset: sit with teacher, three breaths, rejoin.

Backup (if craft fails / time collapses)

Pass soft object around the circle. Each child: (1) one kind word, (2) echo memory phrase. End with three-item tidy of the teaching rug.

What success looks like

- Children can point to clear/windy/foggy without labeling peers.
- Most children join tidy-three and seated chant echo.
- No child is publicly ranked.

TEACHER-ONLY: Older run sheet

Track length: ~40 minutes (Saturday 2:35–3:10) Essential question: Which mode is shaping this moment? Primary: BG 14.5 — <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/14/5/> Conclusion students should state: Modes are changing influences that bind the embodied self; we describe conditions, not people; clarity serves bhakti, not pride.

Objective

Students will (1) observe BG 14.5 on VedaBase and paraphrase the KUTUMBA teaching meaning, (2) sort scenario cards into sattva/rajas/tamas tendencies without labeling persons, (3) complete a diagram and worksheet, and (4) write one reunification sentence plus a project contribution idea.

Teacher background

- Teaching meaning: Goodness, passion, and ignorance — born of material nature — bind the eternal embodied self within the body.
- Supports: BG 14.6–14.9 (tendencies + goodness trap), 14.17 (fruits), 14.26 (bhakti transcends), 17.8–10 only as non-policing food-tendency footnote if asked.
- Misconception to interrupt immediately: using modes to shame siblings/classmates/other families.

Materials

- Devices or printed screenshot of <https://vedabase.io/en/library/bg/14/5/> (teacher-controlled)
- activities/OLDER-ACTIVITY-PACK.md printables / mode-sort cards
- activities/OLDER-ANSWER-KEY.md (teacher only)

- Concept diagram (visuals/V12/concept-diagram.svg or board copy)
- Pencils; timer; scenario card deck (6 cards minimum)

Minute-by-minute

0–5 — Hook

Show three evening captions (calm ordered / multi-screen rush / neglected dull). Ask: “Same family—what changed?” Collect condition words only. Post essential question.

5–12 — Primary text observation

Students open or view BG 14.5 and complete four lines in notebooks:

66. Setting: Kṛṣṇa teaching Arjuna in the Gītā (Chapter 14).
67. Key Sanskrit/IAST phrase they notice (e.g., guṇāḥ prakṛti-sambhavāḥ or nibadhnanti).
68. Paraphrase (KUTUMBA teaching meaning): Goodness, passion, and ignorance — born of material nature — bind the eternal embodied self within the body.
69. *What it does not say:* That we should nickname people as modes.

Teacher checks paraphrases against answer key; corrects invented verse numbers.

12–18 — Worksheet questions (from activity pack)

Students answer:

- One tendency of each mode (from BG 14.6–9 / 14.17 sense).
- Why goodness can still bind (BG 14.6).
- How BG 14.26 redirects pride.

18–26 — Scenario cards + mode_sort puzzle

In pairs, sort six short scenarios into three columns: clarifying / restless-craving / dull-covering. Rule card on table: “Sort the situation, not the person.” Teacher circulates; flips any “Rahul is tamas” talk back to condition language. One group shares a sort aloud; class may challenge kindly with evidence from tendencies.

26–32 — Diagram task

On the concept diagram, label:

- Three modes
- “Bind the embodied self”
- Arrow to “bhakti transcends (BG 14.26)”
- Red “X” on “label people”

32–36 — Project contribution + reflection

- Write one evening redesign: remove / add / move earlier / simplify.
- Reflection sentence: “An analogy helps me picture modes, but scripture is the authority because...”
- Extension (fast finishers): How would food-tendency talk stay kind under BG 17.8–10 without policing allergies/budgets?

36–40 — Reunification sentence + cleanup

Each student drafts one sentence to share upstairs, e.g.: “Modes change; we reset the room so we can hear, without calling people names.” Stack materials; teacher keeps answer key private.

Answer key pointer

Use `activities/OLDER-ANSWER-KEY.md` for paraphrase targets and reject lists. Do not distribute the key to students.

Behavior / speech ethics

- Interrupt mode-labeling of peers in one calm sentence.
- No confession pressure about home mess.
- Privacy: no ranking families' "scores."

Backup if tech fails

Teacher reads IAST aloud from verse card; students write paraphrase from dictation; card sort continues offline.
